

Evangelos T. Giannakopoulos was born in Athens on 9/7/1963 and is married with 2 children. He studied Mechanical Engineering at NTUA and obtained two postgraduate degrees, a first one in the Management of Technological Systems and Production Systems and a second one in Applied Economics & Finance. He speaks English, German & French. He is the Head of the Department of Mechanical Inventions at OBI and has been working as an examiner at OBI since 1/9/92. Represents OBI in technical committees in the EPO and in the WIPO in matters related to the patent classification and the process of issuing patents. He is responsible for the observance of the ELOT 1429 standard at OBI. He has attended numerous seminars on Industrial Property and training programs on the patent examination process. He has worked in the past, before OBI and between the years 1986-1992, in various companies in the field of his specialty, with Electromechanical object of work.